Do you know why it is important to care for our elders? Because they are our mothers and fathers, and our first teachers. They teach us how to love, how to care, and how to (١١) forgive others. Elders have more (١٢) knowledge and wisdom than any one of us. They've come so far and they've learned so much, that's why we should learn from that wisdom. But the most important thing is their experience. We may or may not know of all the ups and downs they've (١٣) faced in life but they have a lot of experience that is worth (١٤) respecting and learning from. Our elders may hide much pain from us because they don't want us to (١٥) feel the pain. The least we can do is to (١٦) appreciate them for all that they've gone through and learn from their experience.

Donating is a great way to help others by giving something to someone who needs it more than us. It could be clothes, food, toys, or even our time. People donate clothes and other items to some stores, and others can buy them at a lower price. The money from these sales often goes to help people in need.

Another place to donate is a place that collects food for people who don't have enough to eat. By donating food, we can help someone have enough to eat. Sometimes, we can give money. Some organizations use the money to build schools, provide medical help, or even protect the environment. We can also donate our time by helping or using our skills to help those who need it. Whether reading to children at a library or cleaning up a park, our help can bring joy and make our community. Donating is a generous act. It teaches us to think of others and be kind. So, let's remember the power of donating and keep giving what we can to make the world a better place.
